8. [] After checking with William Broe, IG, and [] C/CI/Special Operations Group, I called Chairman Nedzi, Intelligence Subcommittee of House Armed Services Committee, in response to his question to me concerning Agency representation on the Intelligence Evaluation Committee, the present chairmanship, etc. I reminded him that this Committee had been covered in the general briefing given him by Mr. Colby and Mr. Broe last week. I told him that we do not know the present chairmanship that the Committee has been inactive during the past year. Bernard A. Wells, Special Assistant to the Attorney General, is the Executive Director of the staff. James Angleton is the CIA representative on the Committee and [] the CIA representative on the IEC staff. Chairman Nedzi thanked me for the information but admitted that he has drawn a complete blank with regard to the information provided in last week's briefing and asked if I would come by in the morning and refresh his memory. I told him I was sure that it could be arranged.
